Newbern Man Said to Have Gotten Rid of Much Worthless Paper.

[Special to The Times-Dispatch.] Newbern, N. C., January 10.—It be-came known here to-day that the aucame known here to-day that the au-thorities were searching for Harold T. Prait, a warrant for his arrest having been issued by the Bankers, Protective Association. Prait until a few days ago was the general agent for saveral insurance companies. He left here Sunday morning, leaving be-hind him, it is said, several thousand dollars in unpaid bills, a forged note for $350, a large number of checks dollars in unpaid bills, a forged note for $350, a large number of checks which he passed off on friends and which were returned marked no funds. Pratt is a member of the First Baptist Church. Last Saturday afternoon Pratt appeared at one of the local banks with a note for $250, which was indorsed by a local attorney. The note was discounted and he was given the money. He then went to given the money. He then went to another man and gave a mortgage on his household furniture and secured another man and gave a mortgage on his household furniture and secured $200 from him. During the day and that night he succeeded in getting rid of a number of cheeks. Monday morning the bank discovered that the note which it had taken from Pratt was a forgery. Checks poured into the bank during the day, and the paying teller was kept busy telling the owners of the paper that the signer had no funds there.

It was then discovered, it is alleged, that he had not turned into the insurance companies any of the money which he had collected during the past few weeks. However, he was under heavy bond with the insurance people.

The sheriff visited Pratt's home this The sheriff visited Pratt's home this afternoon and served an attachment on the household goods. The friend who advanced him $200 could not cialin any of these goods, as Pratt had asked him not to file the mortgage until later in the week, and he had acceeded to his request.

Prait came to this city from Mary-land. The police in all of the larger citles have been notified to be on the lookout for him.
